The bill as amended was certified to the House.

Unanimous consent was granted Senator Weissenborn to be recorded as voting "Nay" on the passage of Senate Bills 1263 and 1287 on June 27.

EXPLANATION OF CHANGE OF VOTE

After some reflection I am of the opinion that Senate Bills 1263 and 1287 should not have been approved by the Senate. SB 1263 was amended on the floor of the Senate so as to provide for residential districts in the joint area covered by the 3rd, 4th and 5th Senatorial districts. Also, this change, however needed it may be, represents a departure from the court-written legislative apportionment plan and I am fearful that any departure from said plan could well result in the whole reapportionment being back in the courts prior to the 1970 census. On the other hand, if we are to depart in any respect from the present plan, I feel we should go ahead and reduce the size of the legislature and make other needed changes. I also object to having all Senate members running initially for four year terms, although like all of us, I am tired of running every year. SB 1287 should have gone further and provided for a legislature smaller in size than the present one. All in all, I think reapportionment should be laid at rest until after the 1970 census at which time needed changes could be made.
